HOLLOWBROOK SENIORS—LORRAINE D. HALL, REPORTER

in

Twenty-six members attended our meeting on Friday, February 12th as we celebrated Black History Month. Following a brief business meeting, Special Projects Chairperson, Betty Lacy introduced Howard Crossland, Music Director of Echo A Cappella. This choral group is comprised of diverse singers who happen to be seniors ages 60-88. Mr. Crossland, who is well-known the Trenton area as a talented tenor, led the choir in a group of Negro Spirituals/Hymns, representative of African American culture. Our members enjoyed this musical treat, followed by the fellowship with the choir members during a light lunch of pizza, salad and dessert.

CLUB A NEWSLETTER

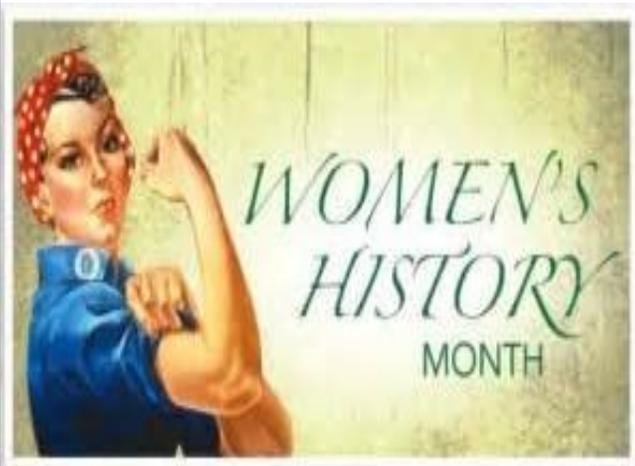

Even though we had snow at the beginning of the week, it was a beautiful day for a club meeting. Club A had 21 members show up for the February meeting.

We started our meeting with a silent prayer for our member Joan Whalen, who passed away on February 15. Cards were sent out to the family of Jeanette Rosie, another member who passed away in January. Also, a card was sent to Lucy Barbon, who was in the hospital.

The Club Secretary was on vacation, so no minutes were read. Treasurer and Trip Advisor gave reports.

The Trips that are scheduled for this year are: May 10 to Hunterdon Hills to see the play, "Rumors," August 16 to American Music Theatre to see the show "Crooners," (which are songs from Frank Sinatra, Rosemary Clooney, Mel Torme, etc., and November 29 to Hunterdon Hills for the "Playhouse Christmas 2016." The Cost of each show is $65. Call Jane Notta at 609-882-5380 for reservations.

We thanked Jackie Anderson Kraus, Betty DiCara, Mary Gatto, Sharon Leyden, Inge McCormack, and Julie Gioscio; for the great Valentine refreshments for this meeting. Marty Closson, Theresa Leggi and Marilyn Silbert, will bring in refreshments for the March meeting. We also thank Betty DiCara for donating two coffee pots for the club.

We had Rudy Tervooren of Visiting Angels, a senior home care agency, speak at our meeting. He gave us wonderful information regarding home health care. Thank you Sandi Mullaney for getting us such a wonderful speaker.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.
