

THE EWING GREEN TEAM'S 3RD ANNUAL SCARECROW CONTEST

REGISTRATION FORM

Put your creative skills and recycling smarts together to make a one-of-a-kind scarecrow and enter the Ewing Green Team's 3rd Annual Scarecrow Contest.

- Open to all Ewing residents, school groups, families, youth groups, service clubs and business groups.
 - Winners will be judged on originality, artistry and the creative use of recycled materials.
- Registration opens on Sept 8th and closes October 28th. Pre-registration is required.
 - Judging will be on Saturday, October 29th at 4:00pm at the Ewing Senior and Community Center at 999 Lower Ferry Rd. at Ewing's Fall Festival – 'Trunk or Treat', fall home decorative project and refreshments.
 - This will be an opportunity for our community to gather together to see who can make recycling into art while having fun and celebrating the fall season.

RULES:

1. Use at least 80% recycled, reclaimed, and/or reused materials to create their scarecrows.
2. Materials like glue, nails, string, or other means of attaching items will count toward the allowable 20% new materials.
3. Scarecrow must be named to help describe/identify the theme and name clearly attached.
4. Dimensions must be 4-5 feet tall (without stake) and 2-4 feet wide and will need to be displayed in an upright position.
5. The Township will supply free wooden frames to which you can secure your entry for the first 15 people who register for the contest. Call 609-620-0722 to make arrangements for pickup.
6. Scarecrows must be delivered to the Ewing Senior and Community Center, 999 Lower Ferry Road no later than Fri, Oct 28th in order to be included in the contest.
7. This is a family event and the Green Team and Township reserve the right to decline any scarecrow deemed inappropriate
